Humor in the Workplace...

“People were more likely to solve word puzzles with sudden insight when they were amused, having just seen a short comedy routine.”

“Joking around on the job can actually have a positive effect on productivity and employee retention. The use of humor is associated with intelligence and creativity, two things highly valued in workplaces. ....and there's also a strong correlation between positive emotions and workplace performance.”

“Ninety-six percent of the executives surveyed by Accountemps believed that people with a sense of humor do better at their jobs than those who have little or no sense of humor. Studies have also shown that people who enjoy their work are more productive and creative, in addition to experiencing greater job satisfaction.”
